The ascension of Jesus by Miki de Goodaboom

We at St. Elisabeth’s share an adventurous spirit and a commitment to radiate God’s love within and beyond our red doors.
Morning Prayer with Spiritual Communion

Gathering around the table for Holy Communion is at the center of worship at St. Elisabeth’s Episcopal Church. However, during this time of Christian community amid COVID-19, we cannot be physically present within our beautiful sanctuary. The spiritual practices found in St. Augustine's Prayer Book connects us internally with the sad reality that we cannot worship together physically. We yearn for the days to come quickly when we can gather together in our church again.

Spiritual Communion reminds us that God is with us and that we are the hands and hearts and spirit of Jesus to each other and to the wider community during this time of anxiety and separation.

This week, during the prayers of the people, we pray the “Litany of Healing.” Public services of healing have increasingly become part of the worship life of the Episcopal Church. What had been a private celebration of laying on of hands and anointing for healing (Visitation of the Sick) with the 1979 Book of Common Prayer has, in many congregations, become a public service of healing. As we live, work, and worship during COVID-19, this beautiful litany contains appropriate petitions for all of God’s people.

The Lessons

The First Reading
Acts 1:1-11

In the first book, Theophilus, I wrote about all that Jesus did and taught from the beginning until the day when he was taken up to heaven, after giving instructions through the Holy Spirit to the apostles whom he had chosen. After his suffering he presented himself alive to them by many convincing proofs, appearing to them during forty days and speaking about the kingdom of God. While staying with them, he ordered them not to leave Jerusalem, but to wait there for the promise of the Father. "This," he said, "is what you have heard from me; for John baptized with water, but you will be baptized with the Holy Spirit not many days from now."

So when they had come together, they asked him, "Lord, is this the time when you will restore the kingdom to Israel?" He replied, "It is not for you to know the times or periods that the Father has set by his own authority. But you will receive power when the Holy Spirit has come upon you; and you will be my witnesses in Jerusalem, in all Judea and Samaria, and to the ends of the earth." When he had said this, as they were watching, he was lifted up, and a cloud took him out of their sight. While he was going and they were gazing up toward heaven, suddenly two men in white robes stood by them. They said, "Men of Galilee, why do you stand looking up toward heaven? This Jesus, who has been taken up from you into heaven, will come in the same way as you saw him go into heaven."

9 The nobles of the peoples have gathered together * with the people of the God of Abraham.
10 The rulers of the earth belong to God, *
    and he is highly exalted.

Refrain
The Second Reading

A reading from the letter of Paul to the Ephesians.

I have heard of your faith in the Lord Jesus and your love toward all the saints, and for this reason I do not cease to give thanks for you as I remember you in my prayers. I pray that the God of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of glory, may give you a spirit of wisdom and revelation as you come to know him, so that, with the eyes of your heart enlightened, you may know what is the hope to which he has called you, what are the riches of his glorious inheritance among the saints, and what is the immeasurable greatness of his power for us who believe, according to the working of his great power. God put this power to work in Christ when he raised him from the dead and seated him at his right hand in the heavenly places, far above all rule and authority and power and dominion, and above every name that is named, not only in this age but also in the age to come. And he has put all things under his feet and has made him the head over all things for the church, which is his body, the fullness of him who fills all in all.

The Gradual

by Calvin Hampton
The Gospel

Gospeler The Holy Gospel of our Savior Jesus Christ according to Luke.
Assembly Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Jesus said to his disciples, "These are my words that I spoke to you while I was still with you-- that everything written about me in the law of Moses, the prophets, and the psalms must be fulfilled." Then he opened their minds to understand the scriptures, and he said to them, "Thus it is written, that the Messiah is to suffer and to rise from the dead on the third day, and that repentance and forgiveness of sins is to be proclaimed in his name to all nations, beginning from Jerusalem. You are witnesses of these things. And see, I am sending upon you what my Father promised; so stay here in the city until you have been clothed with power from on high."

Then he led them out as far as Bethany, and, lifting up his hands, he blessed them. While he was blessing them, he withdrew from them and was carried up into heaven. And they worshiped him, and returned to Jerusalem with great joy; and they were continually in the temple blessing God.

Assembly Praise to you, Lord Christ.

Assembly Jesus,

in union with the faithful of every place and people and nation,

I join in offering the sacrifice of my praise and thanksgiving to you.

and submit myself to your love and mercy.

Let me never be separated from you,

Presider and Assembly

Almighty God,
we your unworthy servants give you humble thanks for all your goodness and loving-kindness to us and to all whom you have made.
We bless you for our creation, preservation,
and all the blessings of this life:
but above all for your immeasurable love in the redemption of the world by our Lord Jesus Christ;
for the means for grace, and for the hope of glory.
And, we pray, give us such an awareness of your mercies, that with truly thankful hearts we may show forth your praise,
not only with our lips, but in our lives,
by giving up our selves to your service,
and by walking before you
in holiness and righteousness all our days;
through Jesus Christ our Lord,
to whom, with you and the Holy Spirit,
be honor and glory throughout all ages. Amen.

A Prayer of St. Chrysostom

Presider

Almighty God, you have given us grace at this time with one accord to make our common supplication to you; and you have promised through your well-beloved Son that when two or three are gathered together in his Name you will be in the midst of them: Fulfill now, O Lord, our desires and petitions as may be best for us; granting us in this world knowledge of your truth, and in the age to come life everlasting.

Your Language Skills Are Needed! – Voices for Pentecost DUE May 27.

Do you have a droid that speaks Bocce? Do you speak English, Mandarin, Portuguese, French or Klingon? Spanish? Korean? Arabic? Canadian? Or some other language?

We need your voice as we prepare to celebrate Pentecost-at-Home! We need you to record the reading in order to help us create a cacophony of voices!

Here is what you need to do!
Wear something red! (Shirt, hat, scarf, balloon!)
Use your mobile phone.
Unlike our other recorded liturgical segments, turn it VERTICALLY!
Go to your video camera
Record your reading
Text it to Rich Lesperance

Here is the reading (Acts 2:1-21):

When the day of Pentecost had come, the disciples were all together in one place. And suddenly from heaven there came a sound like the rush of a violent wind, and it filled the entire house where they were sitting. Divided tongues, as of fire, appeared among them, and a tongue rested on each of them. All of them were filled with the Holy Spirit and began to speak in other languages, as the Spirit gave them ability.

Now there were devout Jews from every nation under heaven living in Jerusalem. And at this sound the crowd gathered and was bewildered, because each one heard them speaking in the native language of each. Amazed and astonished, they asked, “Are not all these who are speaking Galileans? And how is it that we hear, each of us, in our own native language? Parthians, Medes, Elamites, and residents of Mesopotamia, Judea and Cappadocia, Pontus and Asia, Phrygia and Pamphylia, Egypt and the parts of Libya belonging to Cyrene, and visitors from Rome, both Jews and proselytes, Cretans and Arabs—in our own languages we hear them speaking about God’s deeds of power.”

All were amazed and perplexed, saying to one another, “What does this mean?” But others sneered and said, “They are filled with new wine.”

If you need the reading translated into your language of choice, contact Kevin!

FILLING UP OUR WORSHIP SPACE, VIRTUALLY

A priest invited his parishioners to send their photos and selfies so he could fill up the church's pews during this time of physical distancing. He attached their pictures to the pews. I thought it was a wonderful idea.

As we prepare for phased re-entry, Phase 3 provides the opportunity for Dillon and I to stream from the Church sanctuary. We will be following all guidelines and take precautions as we prepare to do this.

We want to be surrounded by all of you. Please take selfies of your face and email them to me.

We will then print them up on thick paper and tape them to the pew where I recall you normally sit. If you want to make sure I place your photo accurately, in your email, say which pew you want your photo attached to. You can guess!

We hope you will take the time to do this. As we move through our phased re-entry plan, these photographs will fill our church with the people and spirit of St. Elisabeth's!

June Voice: Reflections Needed. Please consider sending a paragraph and a picture into the office at office@steglencoe.org. The deadline for submissions is May 25. This is going to be a record of how we as the body of the church moved through this COVID-19 time. If you have any questions, please reach out to Kevin, Pam or Dillon.
