We at St. Elisabeth's share an adventurous spirit and a commitment to radiate God's love within and beyond our red doors.

Morning Worship

Welcome to Morning Worship. We are grateful you have joined us today via Facebook Live and we invite you to participate fully in this morning's service as you are able.

As the Church prepares for colder weather, we find ourselves continuing life within a global pandemic and renewed calls to end prejudice and racial injustice. As citizens of the United States and as our nation votes, our Presiding Bishop has called us to prayer.

God, you have made all the peoples of the earth for your glory, to serve you in freedom and in peace: Give to the people of our country a zeal for justice and the strength of forbearance, that we may use our liberty in accordance with your gracious will; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen. (BCP p. 258)

Following today's service, check your email and respond to a congregational survey regarding future worship considerations. Your vestry and interim rector will be planning worship logistics as the weather turns colder.

The Preparation

Presider

Great is our God who is worthy of all praise.

Assembly

Amen! Praise and glory and wisdom, thanksgiving and honor, power and might, be to our God for ever and ever! Amen.

The Opening Hymn

Common Praise 669

“Rise up, O saints of God”

Festal Song

- 1 Rise up, O saints of God! From vain am - bi - tions turn;
- 2 Speak out, O saints of God! De - spair en - gulf's earth's frame;
- 3 Rise up, O saints of God! The king - dom's task em - brace;
- 4 Give heed, O saints of God! Cre - a - tion cries in pain;
- 5 Com - mit your hearts to seek the paths which Christ has trod;

Christ rose tri - um - phant that your hearts with no - bler zeal might burn.
 as heirs of God's bap - tis - mal grace, the word of hope pro - claim.
 re - dress sin's cru - el con - se - quence; give jus - tice larg - er place.
 stretch forth your hand of heal - ing now, with love the weak sus - tain.
 and, quick - ened by the Spir - it's pow'r, rise up, O saints of God!

Presider

Siblings in Christ, let us praise and worship God who has called us together. Let us celebrate God's majesty, and delight in the wonder of God's love. Together we shall confess our sins and receive assurance that we are forgiven. As the scriptures are read, we can allow God's word to speak to us, and ponder its meaning for our lives. In our prayers, we give thanks for God's goodness, we pray for others as well as for ourselves, and we offer our lives anew in Christ's service. In our longings, we give thanks that we remember Jesus in the breaking of the bread and prayers and we yearn to be around the table together again. All this we do, because we believe in the presence among us of our Savior Jesus Christ, and in the mighty power of the Holy Spirit.

Hear these words of scripture.

Love one another, for love is of God, and whoever loves is born of God and knows God.

Assembly Spirit of God, search our hearts.

Presider Let us pray in silence and remember our need for God's forgiveness.

Silence.

Presider Let us confess our sins to God.

Assembly God of mercy,
we have sinned against you and against others.
We have sinned in what we have done,
and in what we have failed to do.
We are truly sorry.
For the sake of your Son Jesus Christ,
who died for our sins,
forgive us all that is past
and raise us to newness of life. Amen.

Presider Almighty God, who pardons all who truly repent, forgive your sins, strengthen you by the Holy Spirit, and keep you in life eternal; through Jesus Christ or Redeemer.

The Ministry of the Word

Presider O come, let us sing to the Lord,
Assembly let us rejoice in the rock of our salvation.

Presider We sing to you, O God, and bless your name;
Assembly and tell of your salvation from day to day.

Presider We proclaim your glory to the nations,
Assembly your praise to the ends of the earth.

Song of Praise

Glory to God 399

“God Welcomes All”

Themba Amen

The musical score is written in 4/4 time with a key signature of one sharp (F#). It consists of two systems of music, each with a vocal line and a piano accompaniment line. The lyrics are: "God wel - comes all, strang - ers and friends; God's love is strong and it nev - er ends." The piano accompaniment features a steady bass line and chords that support the vocal melody.

The Collect

Presider God be with you.

Assembly And also with you.

Presider Let us pray.

Creator of all, you have called us and chosen us to be your people. By the power of your Holy Spirit may we bear witness with joy and conviction to the good news of Jesus Christ.

Assembly Amen.

The Lessons

From the Hebrew Scripture

Exodus 33:12-23

A reading from the book of Exodus.

Moses said to the Lord, "See, you have said to me, 'Bring up this people'; but you have not let me know whom you will send with me. Yet you have said, 'I know you by name, and you have also found favor in my sight.' Now if I have found favor in your sight, show me your ways, so that I may know you and find favor in your sight. Consider too that this nation is your people." He said, "My presence will go with you, and I will give you rest." And he said to him, "If your presence will not go, do not carry us up from here. For how shall it be known that I have found favor in your sight, I and your people, unless you go with us? In this way, we shall be distinct, I and your people, from every people on the face of the earth."

The Lord said to Moses, "I will do the very thing that you have asked; for you have found favor in my sight, and I know you by name." Moses said, "Show me your glory, I pray." And he said, "I will make all my goodness pass before you, and will proclaim before you the name, 'The Lord'; and I will be gracious to whom I will be gracious, and will show mercy on whom I will show mercy. But," he said, "you cannot see my face; for no one shall see me and live." And the Lord continued, "See, there is a place by me where you shall stand on the rock; and while my glory passes by I will put you in a cleft of the rock, and I will cover you with my hand until I have passed by; then I will take away my hand, and you shall see my back; but my face shall not be seen."

Reader Hear what the Spirit is saying to God's people.

Assembly Thanks be to God.

From the Christian Scriptures

1 Thessalonians 1:1-10

A reading from the first letter of Paul to the Thessalonians.

Paul, Silvanus, and Timothy, To the church of the Thessalonians in God the Father and the Lord Jesus Christ:

Grace to you and peace.

We always give thanks to God for all of you and mention you in our prayers, constantly remembering before our God and Father your work of faith and labor of love and steadfastness of hope in our Lord Jesus Christ. For we know, brothers and sisters beloved by God, that he has chosen you, because our message of the gospel came to you not in word only, but also in power and in the Holy Spirit and with full conviction; just as you know what kind of persons we proved to be among you for your sake. And you became imitators of us and of the Lord, for in spite of persecution you received the word with joy inspired by the Holy Spirit, so that you became an example to all the believers in Macedonia and in Achaia. For the word of the Lord has sounded forth from you not only in Macedonia and Achaia, but in every place your faith in God has become known, so that we have no need to speak about it. For the people of those regions report about us what kind of welcome we had among you, and how you turned to God from idols, to serve a living and true God, and to wait for his Son from heaven, whom he raised from the dead-- Jesus, who rescues us from the wrath that is coming.

Reader Hear what the Spirit is saying to God's people.

Assembly Thanks be to God.

Gospeler

The Holy Gospel of our Savior Jesus Christ according to Matthew.

Assembly

Glory to you, Lord Christ.

The Pharisees went and plotted to entrap Jesus in what he said. So they sent their disciples to him, along with the Herodians, saying, “Teacher, we know that you are sincere, and teach the way of God in accordance with truth, and show deference to no one; for you do not regard people with partiality. Tell us, then, what you think. Is it lawful to pay taxes to the emperor, or not?” But Jesus, aware of their malice, said, “Why are you putting me to the test, you hypocrites? Show me the coin used for the tax.” And they brought him a denarius. Then he said to them, “Whose head is this, and whose title?” They answered, “The emperor’s.” Then he said to them, “Give therefore to the emperor the things that are the emperor’s, and to God the things that are God’s.” When they heard this, they were amazed; and they left him and went away.

Presider Show us your mercy, O Lord;
Assembly And grant us your salvation.
Presider Clothe your ministers with righteousness;
Assembly Let your people sing with joy.
Presider Give peace, O Lord, in all the world;
Assembly For only in you can we live in safety.
Presider Lord, keep this nation under your care;
Assembly And guide us in the way of justice and truth.
Presider Let your way be known upon earth;
Assembly Your saving health among all nations.
Presider Let not the needy, O Lord, be forgotten;
Assembly Nor the hope of the poor be taken away.
Presider Create in us clean hearts, O God;
Assembly And sustain us with your Holy Spirit.

The Collect of the Day

Presider Almighty and everlasting God, in Christ you have revealed your glory among the nations: Preserve the works of your mercy, that your Church throughout the world may persevere with steadfast faith in the confession of your Name; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever

Assembly Amen.

The Prayers of the People

After the last Sunday of each month, our prayer list is reset. Submit prayers and thanksgivings by the first of the month to Pam.

Intercessor In the Name of Jesus, let us offer our prayers, responding, “God, hear our prayer.”

For the desire to reflect God’s abundant treasures, that we may generously give for the mission of the Church in the world, and broaden our commitment to the poor and those in need; let us pray.

Assembly God, hear our prayer.

Intercessor For our President, our Governor, elected leaders and officials, and for discernment by the citizens of the United States; let us pray.

Assembly God, hear our prayer.

Intercessor In thanksgiving for our Creator who formed the darkness and formed the light, leading us through both, so that we may be transformed into a holy people; let us pray.

Assembly God, hear our prayer.

Intercessor In the Diocesan cycle of prayer, we pray for all retired clergy in our diocese, and for surviving spouses of clergy. And for ministries in our Companion Dioceses of South East Mexico and Mothers’ Union in the Diocese of Renk. In the Anglican cycle of prayer we pray the Episcopal Church, The Most Rev. Celebration of Birthdays and Anniversaries

Presider

God, thank you for the days of our lives: Look with joy, we pray, on all celebrating birthdays as they begin another year. Grant that they may grow in wisdom and grace, and strengthen their trust in your goodness all the days of their life; through Jesus Christ our Lord.

Assembly

Amen.

Presider

God of our strength and joy, we thank you for the love we witness between two people because through their love for each other we get a glimpse of the love you have for each and every one of us. Through the power of your spirit may they live in fidelity and peace and obtain those eternal joys prepared for all who seek and love you, through Jesus Christ our Lord.

Assembly

Amen.

The Ministry of Healing

The Invocation

Presider Like the first disciples before the coming of God's power at Pentecost, we wait in faith, and pray.

Silence

Assembly Be with us, Holy Spirit; nothing can separate us from your love.
Be with us as of old,
fill us with your power,
direct all our thoughts to your goodness,
Be present, Holy Spirit;
bring faith and healing and peace.
God is here.
God's Spirit is with us.

Silence

Eternal Spirit,
Earth-maker, Pain-bearer, Life-giver,
Source of all that is and that shall be,
Father and Mother of us all,
Loving God, in whom is heaven:

The hallowing of your name echo through the universe!
The way of your justice be followed by the peoples of the world!

Your heavenly will be done by all created beings!
Your commonwealth of peace and freedom sustain our hope and come on earth.

With the bread we need for today, feed us.
In the hurts we absorb from one another, forgive us.
In times of temptation and test, strengthen us.
From trials too great to endure, spare us.
From the grip of all that is evil, free us.

For you reign in the glory of the power that is love,
now and for ever. Amen.

Assembly

God,
 you stand at the door of our hearts
 and knock.
 You wait for us
 and only we can let you in.
 We believe and trust in you and ask you now
 to fill us with your presence.
 Feed us with your body
 and unite us in your blood,
 that we may be your blessing
 to a world in need. Amen.

“Where two or three are gathered”

By Bruce Harding

The image shows two staves of musical notation in G major (one sharp) and common time. The first staff contains the melody for the first line of the hymn: "Where two or three are gathered in my". The second staff contains the melody for the second line: "name, I am there, I am there." The music is written in a simple, hymn-like style with a treble clef and a key signature of one sharp (F#).

Where two or three are gathered in my name, I am there, I am there.

A Prayer of St. Chrysostom

Presider Almighty God, you have given us grace at this time with one accord to make our common supplication to you; and you have promised through your well-beloved Son that when two or three are gathered together in his Name you will be in the midst of them; Fulfill now, O Lord, our desires and petitions as may be best for us; granting us in this world knowledge of your trough, and in the age to come life everlasting.

Assembly Amen.

The Blessing

The Priest blesses the people.

Presider Life is short, and we do not have much time to gladden the hearts of those who make the journey with us. So... be swift to love, and make haste to be kind. And the blessing of God, who made us, loves us, and travels with us be with you now and forever.

Assembly Amen.

The Closing Hymn

Worship 740

“Baited, the question rose”

Diadernada

1. Baited, the question rose from somewhere in the crowd:
 "Teacher, you truly know God's way;
 is paying tax allowed?"
 Jesus perceived their trap:
 "Why do you test me so?
 Bring here the coin the tax requires,
 and see what it will show."

2. "Whose image does it bear, whose name and titles tell?"
 "Caesar's, of course," they smugly said and though they answered well.
 "Give Caesar what is his;
 God, what is God's alone."
 Strong words, convincing and profound,
 like truth already known.

3. May we discern, O God,
 your daily gifts of grace;
 show us your image freshly coined
 in every heart and face.
 Help us fit tribute yield through prayers and hymns we raise,
 but most of all by deeds of love
 to give you thanks and praise.

Conclusion

Presider

Glory to God whose power, working in us, can do infinitely more than we can ask or imagine: Glory to him from generation to generation in the Church, and in Christ Jesus for ever and ever.

Preparing for the Feast of All Saints’ Day

All Saints’ Day Altar Preparation and Film Screening: As we prepare to celebrate the feast of All Saints’ Day, Sunday, November 1, you are invited to create prayer flags with resurrection hopes and intentions and to help decorate our church altar. Pick up prayer flags in the unlocked narthex on Thursday October 22, and Friday October 23 between the hours of 10:00 AM to 7:00 PM. Consider creating an altar in memory of a loved one(s) and drop it off at the church on Wednesday October 28 or Thursday October 29 between 10:00 AM and 2:00 PM. Additional drop-off hours can be arranged by appointment. Join us via Teleparty (download for free – netflixparty.com) compatible with Chrome browsers. We will gather via Teleparty for fellowship and a film screening on Friday, October 30, 6:30 PM - 9:00 PM.

Necrology for All Saint’s’ Sunday, November 1: If you would like a loved one who has died to be remembered by name, please email the church office and include their name and yours by October 28.

Thursday Night Community Forum

Community Forum – October 22 Scripture: Facilitated by Kevin Goodman. Inspired: Slaying Giants, Walking on Water, and Loving the Bible Again by Rachel Held Evans, pgs. 91 – 174.

Weekly Community Forums during the Fall 2020 will gather on Thursday evenings, 7:30 PM – 8:30 PM. Our Weekly Community Forums will focus on four things:

1. Scripture – increasing our knowledge and engagement with our holy story. We will use Inspired. Slaying Giants, Walking on Water, and Loving the Bible Again as our introduction to the Bible. If the Bible isn't a science book or an instruction manual, then what is it? When Rachel Held Evans found herself asking these questions, she began a quest to better understand what the Bible is and how it is meant to be read. What she discovered changed her.
2. Prayer – deepening our relationship with God and with each other through spiritual practices which will focus on the sacred art of listening.
3. Music – strengthening our voices to praise God together, by exploring the importance of communal song, how the theology of our hymnody shapes us, and the history of music in the Church.
4. Ministry – informal conversations about stewardship during COVID-19. The Episcopal Network for Stewardship reminds us that “As children of God and disciples of Jesus Christ, we are called to the transformational ministry of living generously and calling others into that life of generosity. We are sojourners who, along with many others, have some sense that it is through an understanding of holistic stewardship and a practice of gratitude and generosity that we will grow spiritually, that we will grow more and more into the likeness of the loving, generous God in whose image we are created. We believe that it is by virtue of our baptism that we are called to this ministry of stewardship.”
