The Twentieth Sunday after Pentecost: Proper 23

October 10, 2021

10:00 AM

Welcome to Saint Elisabeth's. We are delighted to have you with us today and invite you to join us for our refreshments after the service.

During the Fall season (harvest time), our prayers during the liturgy will emphasize gratitude for the abundant blessings in creation and our lives. The covers of the bulletins during this season will display sections of the Creation window in our chapel, representing God's gift of creation of which we are called to be good stewards.

We at St. Elisabeth's share an adventurous spirit and a commitment to radiate God's love within and beyond our red doors.

The Word of God

From the Hebrew Scriptures

Amos 5:6-7,10-15

A Reading from the Book of Amos.

Seek the LORD and live,
or he will break out against the house of Joseph like fire,
and it will devour Bethel, with no one to quench it.

Ah, you that turn justice to wormwood,
and bring righteousness to the ground!

They hate the one who reproveth in the gate,
and they abhor the one who speaks the truth.
Therefore, because you trample on the poor
and take from them levies of grain,
you have built houses of hewn stone,
but you shall not live in them;
you have planted pleasant vineyards,
but you shall not drink their wine.
For I know how many are your transgressions,
and how great are your sins—
you who afflict the righteous, who take a bribe,
and push aside the needy in the gate.
Therefore the prudent will keep silent in such a time;
for it is an evil time.

Seek good and not evil,
that you may live;
and so the LORD, the God of hosts, will be with you,
just as you have said.
Hate evil and love good,
and establish justice in the gate;
it may be that the LORD, the God of hosts,
will be gracious to the remnant of Joseph.

Reader Hear what the Spirit is saying to God's people.
Assembly Thanks be to God.

From the Christian Scripture

Hebrews 4:12-16

A Reading from the letter of Hebrews.

The word of God is living and active, sharper than any two-edged sword, piercing until it divides soul from spirit, joints from marrow; it is able to judge the thoughts and intentions of the heart. And before him no creature is hidden, but all are naked and laid bare to the eyes of the one to whom we must render an account.

Since, then, we have a great high priest who has passed through the heavens, Jesus, the Son of God, let us hold fast to our confession. For we do not have a high priest who is unable to sympathize with our weaknesses, but we have one who in every respect has been tested as we are, yet without sin. Let us therefore approach the throne of grace with boldness, so that we may receive mercy and find grace to help in time of need.

Reader Hear what the Spirit is saying to God's people.
Assembly Thanks be to God.

The Gospel

Mark 10:17-31

Gospeler The Holy Gospel of our Savior Jesus Christ according to Mark.

Assembly Glory to you, Lord Christ.

As Jesus was setting out on a journey, a man ran up and knelt before him, and asked him, “Good Teacher, what must I do to inherit eternal life?” Jesus said to him, “Why do you call me good? No one is good but God alone. You know the commandments: ‘You shall not murder; You shall not commit adultery; You shall not steal; You shall not bear false witness; You shall not defraud; Honor your father and mother.’” He said to him, “Teacher, I have kept all these since my youth.” Jesus, looking at him, loved him and said, “You lack one thing; go, sell what you own, and give the money to the poor, and you will have treasure in heaven; then come, follow me.” When he heard this, he was shocked and went away grieving, for he had many possessions.

Then Jesus looked around and said to his disciples, “How hard it will be for those who have wealth to enter the kingdom of God!” And the disciples were perplexed at these words. But Jesus said to them again, “Children, how hard it is to enter the kingdom of God! It is easier for a camel to go through the eye of a needle than for someone who is rich to enter the kingdom of God.” They were greatly astounded and said to one another, “Then who can be saved?” Jesus looked at them and said, “For mortals it is impossible, but not for God; for God all things are possible.”

Peter began to say to him, “Look, we have left everything and followed you.” Jesus said, “Truly I tell you, there is no one who has left house or brothers or sisters or mother or father or children or fields, for my sake and for the sake of the good news, who will not receive a hundredfold now in this age—houses, brothers and sisters, mothers and children, and fields with persecutions—and in the age to come eternal life. But many who are first will be last, and the last will be first.”

Gospeler The Gospel of the Lord.

Assembly Praise to you, Lord Christ.

The Sermon

The Rev. Adam Spencer

A period of silence follows.

The Creed

Please stand as able.

Sung to Hyfrydol (Hymnal 460)

1. We believe in God almighty | Author of all things that be
Maker of the earth and heavens | Keeper of the sky and sea
We believe in God's Son, Jesus, | now for us both Lord and Christ of the Spirit and of Mary | born to bring abundant life.
2. We believe that Jesus suffered | Scourged and scorned and crucified;
Taken from the cross, was buried. | True Life there had truly died
We believe that on the third day | Christ was raised up from the grave,
Then ascended to God's right hand. | He will come to judge and save.
3. We believe in God's own Spirit, | bonding all the saints within one Church cath'lic, one Church holy, | where forgiveness frees from sin
In the body's resurrection, | For the breaking of death's chain
Gives the life that's everlasting. | This the faith that we have claimed.

The Great Thanksgiving

Presider God be with you.

Assembly And also with you.

Presider Lift up your hearts.

Assembly We lift them to the Lord.

Presider Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

Assembly It is right to give our thanks and praise.

Presider Lord of all life, you created the universe, where all living things reflect your glory. You give us this great and beautiful earth, to discover and to cherish.

You give us sun and moon and star-lit sky, everything that gives us light, light for our eyes, our hearts, our minds. You give us the fish in the sea, the birds of the air, and every plant and tree; the life that sleeps in the winter earth, and awakens again in the spring. You give us your love, even when things go wrong. Jesus knew hurt and pain. Through him you wipe away our tears, and fill us with your peace. You give us happy times and things to celebrate. In these we taste your kingdom, a feast for all your children.

You made us all, each wonderfully different, to join with the angels and sing your praise:

Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord. Ho - san - na in the high - est. Ho - san - na in the high - est.

The assembly may stand or kneel.

Presider

We thank you, loving God, because, when we turned away, you sent Jesus, your Son. He gave his life for us on the cross and shows us the way to live. Send your Holy Spirit that these gifts of bread and wine may be for us Christ's body and his blood.

On the night before he died, when darkness had fallen, Jesus took bread. He gave thanks, broke it, and shared it with his disciples, saying: "This is my body, given for you. Do this to remember me."

After they had eaten, he took the cup of wine, gave thanks, and shared it with his disciples, saying: "This is my blood, poured out for you and for many, for the forgiveness of sins. Do this to remember me."

So, with this bread and this cup we celebrate Christ's love, death, and risen life.

As you feed us with these gifts, send your Holy Spirit, and change us more and more to be like Jesus our Savior. Help us, God, to love one another, as we look forward to that day when suffering is ended, and all creation is gathered in your loving arms. And now with Elisabeth and all your saints we give you glory, through Jesus Christ, in the strength of the Spirit, today and for ever.

Assembly

Amen.

The Lord's Prayer

Presider And now, as our Savior Christ has taught us, we are bold to say,
Assembly Our Father, who art in heaven,
 hallowed be thy Name,
 thy kingdom come,
 thy will be done,
 on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses,
 as we forgive those
 who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation,
 but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom,
 and the power, and the glory,
 for ever and ever. Amen.

The Breaking of the Bread

The Presider breaks the consecrated bread. A period of silence is kept.

Presider We break this bread to share in the body of Christ.
Assembly We who are many are one body, for we all share the one bread.

All are welcome to receive Communion or a blessing.

Communion will be in one kind only; the congregation will receive the host and not the cup.

Gluten-free host available upon request.

If you would prefer to receive a blessing instead of the sacrament, please cross your arms over your chest.

Wednesdays at St. E's: Wednesday evenings are shaping up to be a time of worship, supper, and formation at St. Elisabeth's. During the transition and in welcoming Adam to our community, we have heard a great desire for more fellowship and formation opportunities here at St. E's, so we're creating a Wednesday night gathering here at church that looks to do those things, beginning on October 20 and taking place every Wednesday night moving forward unless otherwise noted. We're keeping an eye on how we can best roll this new opportunity out due to the Delta variant that is causing us to continue to live with the pandemic restrictions.

Here is the current plan for the Wednesday evening schedule:

6:00 PM – Evening Prayer

6:30 PM – Potluck Community Supper

7:00 PM – Formation (Christian Education) for all ages

During the 7:00 PM Adult Formation time we will read and discuss Christopher Webber's book "Welcome to the Episcopal Church" - an introduction to and/or refresher course on the Episcopal Church - our history, worship, and identity. While ideal for newcomers and enquirers, long-time Episcopalians are encouraged to attend to share their experiences, wisdom and knowledge with newer folks. We invite you to purchase this book from your favorite book seller, and read chapter 1 before the first session.

Sunday Morning Outreach Collections: On Sunday mornings we will have bins available to collect food for the local food pantry and newspapers for the Orphans of the Storm Animal Shelter. Please bring your donations with you to church and place them in the appropriate bin.
